Making Entry Passes available for persons visiting without an Educator

1. The availability of Entry Passes for tours without an Educator is subject to security procedures in place at the Museum.
2. The procedure for providing Entry Passes for tours without an educator:
 - a. to make a reservation via the System, the User should select the Entry Pass, which is the subject of the reservation,
 - b. the acceptance of a booking via the processing System shall be automatically confirmed by a notification sent to the e-mail address indicated by the User with a confirmation of the order and the ordered Entry Pass.

- c. purchase of Entry Passes for tours without an Educator is also possible at the Visitors Service Centre on the day of the visit, subject to availability.
3. The User making a reservation for Entry Passes for a tour without an Educator is entitled to book a maximum of six Entry Passes on a given day.
4. A person obtaining an Entry Pass for a tour without an Educator on the day of the visit at the Visitors Service Centre is entitled to purchase a maximum of one Entry Pass on a given day. The number may be increased to three Entry Passes provided that the Buyer indicates accompanying visitors on behalf of whom he/she is making the purchase.
5. The Museum reserves the right to temporarily suspend the on-line provision of Entry Passes in the System, referred to in pt.1 at any moment, due to technical reasons

Settlements

1. The Price of Entry Passes for Guided Tours and Organised Groups are given in Polish zloty and gross value.
2. Pursuant to the Directive of the Minister of Finance of 4 November 2014 on exemptions from the obligation to keep records when using cash registers (Journal of Laws of 2014, item 1544 as amended), the sale of a ticket within the scope of ordering and on-line payment is not subject to taxation, wherefore the User does not receive a cash register receipt.
3. To receive an invoice the buyer should:
 - a. in the case of purchase of Entry Passes at the Visitors Service Centre on the day of the visit - inform the cashier during the transaction.
 - b. in the case of purchase of Entry Passes via the System, upon prior registration - check the "Invoice" option and enter the correct data necessary to issue the invoice. By selecting the Invoice option, the User consents to the sending of electronic Invoices to the e-mail address provided during registration. The consent referred to in the preceding sentence does not exclude the Museum's right to issue and send invoices in paper form.
4. The Museum is not liable for the consequences of providing false or incorrect data by the User in the invoice form.

5. The sale of the Entry Pass referred to in sec. 1 at a price exceeding the value indicated in the Price list or attempt of such a resale invalidates the Entry Pass without the right to refund for the cost of its purchase.
6. The sale of Entry Passes for tours without an Educator or attempts to sell them shall result in their annulment.

Collection and validity of Entry Passes

1. Entry Passes ordered via the System should be printed or downloaded in electronic form to a mobile device. The Entry Pass contains a unique barcode of the reservation. It may also be collected at the Visitors Service Centre upon presentation of the booking number.
2. The Museum is not liable for the consequences of making available data regarding the order to a third party and in particular, for the unauthorised collection or printing of the Entry Pass by a third party.
3. Entry Passes ordered via the System or collected at the Visitors Service Centre on the day of the visit, along with sales document or the booking number, entitles the holder to a single entry to the grounds of the Museum, solely to participate in a Tour.
4. Entry Passes for Guided Tours and Entry Passes for a tour without an Educator are personal documents and only authorises the holder indicated with a name and surname or the last four digits of proof of identity to explore the Museum upon presentation at the entrance to the Museum. The Guardian of a minor without proof of identity should obtain the relevant Entry Pass for his/her charge by providing their data, referred to in the preceding sentence. If the minor has proof of identity, the guardian shall provide the minor's data and also give consent for its processing.
5. Concessionary Entry Passes for Guided Tours entitles the holder to a tour of the Museum upon presentation of a valid concession document before the Tour. In the absence of a document, the User is obliged to re-pay the fee for the Entry Pass without the right to a concession at the Visitors Service Centre. Consequently, the Buyer is entitled to a refund of the payment made for the concessionary Entry Pass purchased via the System - to the bank account from which the payment was effected, and in the case of purchase at the Visitors Service Centre - in the same form the payment was effected.

6. Entry Passes that are illegible, damaged, destroyed or that have been tampered with are invalid and thus do not entitle the holder to entry on the premises of the Museum or to participate in the Tour.
7. The Museum bears no responsibility for Entry Passes that have been tampered with, damaged, lost or destroyed.

Cancellation and change of Tour option

1. Bookings made using the System are subject to cancellation or changes, under the principles set out in this paragraph.
2. Buyers who have made a reservation for Entry Passes for Guided Tours are not entitled to withdraw from the contract. Users or Buyers who have made a reservation for Entry Passes for Guided Tours or Entry Passes for persons visiting without an Educator are not entitled to change the reservation.
3. The Museum reserves the right to change the Tour date due to reasons beyond the Museum, in particular resulting from force majeure, security reasons and in the event of delegation visits or state ceremonies. In such a case, the User shall receive an e-mail from the Museum with a proposal for a new date of visit, and a request to confirm acceptance within 3 working days upon receipt of the message. Acceptance of the change to the reservation results in the cancellation of the original reservation and a refund of the full cost of the Entry Passes purchased, within 3 working days from receipt of the acceptance to the bank account from which the payment was effected, and to make a new reservation for the User, in respect of which the User is again obliged to pay for Entry Passes in accordance with the Price List in force on the day of the original reservation, within 3 working days from receipt of the acceptance. In the event of non-acceptance, the reservation is cancelled, and the User is entitled to a refund of costs incurred for the Entry Passes within 3 working days to the bank account from which the payment was made.
4. The Museum reserves the right to cancel the Tour or change the Tour option on the day of the visit, due to reasons beyond the Museum, in particular resulting from force majeure, security reasons or in the case of delegation visits or state ceremonies. In such a case, the Buyer is entitled to a refund for the purchased Entry Pass:

- a. in the case of purchase via the System - within 3 working days, counting from the date of the visit to the bank account from which the payment was made.
- b. in the case of purchase of Entry Passes at the Visitors Service Centre - on the day of purchase, in the same manner, payment was made.

In the event of a change in the tour option, the Buyer is obliged to once again effect payment according to the Price List applicable on the date of the original reservation:

- a. for Entry Passes for Organised Groups - bank transfer within 7 days from the visit date or on the day of the visit at the Visitors Service Centre,
 - b. for Entry Passes for Guided Tours - on the visit date at the Visitors Service Centre,
5. The Museum reserves the right to cancel the Tour for bookings that are inconsistent with the applicable provisions, these Terms and Conditions as well as the Price List.
 6. A User who placed an order for Entry Passes for Organized Groups has the right to cancel the booking by sending an e-mail to the address: reservation.office@auschwitz.org. A return message with the confirmation of cancellation shall be sent within 5 working days upon receipt of the notification. Notification of cancellation within 8 working days preceding the Tour date, entitles the User to a refund of costs incurred for the Entry Passes, within 3 working days of receipt of the acceptance for cancellation, to the bank account from which the payment was made. Where notification of booking cancellation is made later than the date specified above, or in the absence of notification, the User is not entitled to a refund of the incurred costs.
 7. A User who placed an order for Entry Passes for Organised Groups, at the latest 8 working days prior to the initially scheduled Tour date is entitled to change the tour option, i.e. hour, date, tour type, language or number of persons in the group (in accordance with sec. 11 of this paragraph), by sending an e-mail to the address: reservation.office@auschwitz.org. Changes to the booking can only be made once and may involve changing some or all of the Tour options mentioned above. The Museum is obliged to send a return message within 5 working days upon receipt of the message. Acceptance by the Museum of a change in Tour option or number of persons in the group resulting in a change in the Entry Passes will entail cancellation of the original booking and refund of costs incurred for the Entry Passes within 3 working days upon receipt of the acceptance for a change in reservation to the bank account from which the payment was made, and effecting payment for the new reservation on behalf of the User through the Museum, in respect of which the User is entitled to once again make payment according to the Price List applicable on the day of the new reservation, within 3 days upon acceptance of the change. In the event of an increase in the number of persons in the group, the availability of the Entry Pass is subject to established security procedures in place at the Museum.

8. A User who has placed an order for Entry Passes for Organized Group has the right to change the reservation in the scope of the number of persons in the group on the day of the visit at the Visitor Service Centre, provided the change does not affect the number of previously reserved Educators. The accepted change by the Museum in the number of persons in the group resulting in a price change of Entry Passes, leads to the cancellation of the original booking and refund of costs for the purchased Entry Passes within 3 working days from the day of the visit, to the account from which the payment was made, and effecting a new booking for the User in respect of which the User is obliged to pay again for the Entry Pass on the day of visit. at the Visitor Service Centre according to the Price list applicable on the day of the change. In the event of an increase in the number of persons in the group, the availability of Entry Passes for Organized Groups is subject to established security procedures at the Museum.
9. A User who placed an order for Entry Passes for Organized Groups is entitled to change the tour language within 3 days before the scheduled visit. To this end, the User is obliged to inform the Museum by phone (numbers: +48 33 844 8099; +48 33 844 8100). The availability of a Tour in a given language is subject to the availability of an Educator in the chosen language. A change to a reservation no later than 8 days before the scheduled visit must be in accordance with sec. 7 of this paragraph.
10. The Museum reserves the right to limit the possibility of making changes to the reservation, related to the refund of payment, i.e. change of tour option and number of persons to a maximum of 40 within a month, taking into account invoice details provided, in the case of corporate entities, and in the case of natural persons, the email address provided.
11. The Tour begins at the time indicated on the booking confirmation. For organisational reasons, in particular, the time required for persons and luggage inspection, the Buyer should arrive at the Museum at least 30 minutes before the start of the Tour. Reporting at the Visitor Service Centre after the hour indicated on the booking confirmation makes it impossible to participate in the Tour, and without the right to reimbursement for the incurred costs, unless a different hour is available on the same day for the booked Tour option. The right to the change above is entitled to the User who ordered an Entry Pass for Organized Groups. The availability of a given Tour option at a different hour is subject to established security procedures at the Museum and the availability of an Educator in the chosen language

Personal data protection

1. By booking Entry Passes with or without registration, the User or Buyer who is a natural person consents to the storage and processing of their personal data by the Museum in order to process the booking, contact the User, Buyer or person appointed by the them, as well as to undertake all activities necessary for the operation of the System. 6. The processing period of the data mentioned is associated with purposes of their processing indicated in § 9 sec. 1-3. In view of the above, personal data will be processed for the period imposed by law on the data Administrator to store data or for the limitation period for possible claims, which requires access to data for investigation.

7. Data subjects have the right to access the content of their personal data, right to rectify, delete, as well as restrict their processing/right to withdraw consent, and transfer data as well as to object to the processing of their personal data, subject to § 3 sec. 1. Data subjects are entitled under this paragraph to lodge a complaint to the supervisory body if they have reasons to believe that the processing of their personal data violates the GDPR.
8. Storage and processing of personal data received are carried out in compliance with the regulations specified in the Act of 10 May 2018 on the Protection of Personal Data (Journal of Laws of 24. May 2018), in the Act of 18 July 2002 on the provision services by electronic means (Journal of Laws of 2017, item 1219 unified text, as amended) and the provisions of the GDPR. As regards personal data processed by the Museum, the policy of the GDPR available on the website <http://www.auschwitz.org/rodo/> is also binding.

Final provisions

1. In all matters related to the sale or distribution of Entry Passes using the System or at the Visitors Service Centre not governed by these regulations, as well as complaints; the Buyer should contact the Museum via e-mail to the address: reservation.office@auschwitz.org. Complaints may be lodged no later than 14 days from the incident that is the reason for the complaint, except where the cause of the complaint lies with the payment operator. In the case described above, the complaint shall be forwarded to the operator for consideration in accordance with the applicable regulation available at: <http://www.payu.pl/pliki-do-pobrania/regulaminy-i-informacje>. The Buyer should indicate in the complaint: the subject of the complaint, the transaction number, e-mail address used for the booking (if booking was made via the System) full name of the buyer, the order number (pro forma invoice), price of the purchased Entry Passes, date of payment and the reason for the complaint. The Museum is not liable for inappropriately lodged complaints, in particular for the provision of incorrect or false data by the Buyer.

2. Complaints shall be examined once by the Museum within 14 days from the date of receipt, except for situations where the reason for the complaint lies with the payment operator. In the case described above, the complaint shall be forwarded to the operator for consideration in accordance with the applicable regulation available at: <http://www.payu.pl/pliki-do-pobrania/regulaminy-i-informacje>; The Buyer shall be informed of the investigation of the complaint through a return message.
3. The Museum reserves the right to make amendments to these Terms and Conditions. The Museum is obliged to communicate each modification to the public on its website: visit.auschwitz.org.
4. These Terms and Conditions, the Booking Form in the System, the Regulations for visitors and persons staying on the grounds of the Auschwitz-Birkenau State Museum, as well as the Price list for Entry Passes constitute an integral whole of the mutual obligations of the Museum and the Buyer.
5. All matters not regulated by these Terms and Conditions are governed by the provisions of the Polish law, in particular, the Civil Code, the Act on the Protection of Personal Data and the Act on Consumer Rights, as well as the GDPR.
6. The Regulations have been drawn up in two language versions: Polish and English. In case of any discrepancies between the language versions of the Regulation, the Polish version shall prevail.
7. Where the User is a consumer, all disputes arising from the application of these Terms and Conditions shall be resolved by the Polish common court with territorial jurisdiction according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure. In other cases, disputes shall be adjudicated by the Polish common court with territorial jurisdiction over the seat of the Museum.

() The Terms and conditions of booking and purchase of Entry Passes apply to booked and purchased Entry Passes from 02.01.2018.*
