Rules of order

1. Visitors to the grounds of the Museum should behave with due solemnity and respect. Visitors are obliged to dress in a manner befitting a place of this nature.
2. While on the Museum grounds, visitors must adhere to the instructions of the Educators and the Museum staff. It is permitted to move only around the areas and structures specifically made available for this purpose. Visitors should exercise particular caution due to the specific characteristics of the area (including unevenness of surfaces, surface defects) resulting from the authenticity of the historical site. In winter, visitors should not deviate from the marked routes. In the case of online tour, there could be technical issues and inconvenience related to it, including temporary loss of Internet connection, insufficient lighting of historical spaces and unfavourable weather conditions affecting the quality of reception.
3. Under the Act of 22 August 1997 on the protection of persons and property (Journal of Laws as of 2018, item 2142, as amended), the Museum Guards have the right to intervene and request persons who violate these Regulations to leave the Museum. In view of the foregoing, visitors are not entitled to any claims. The following restrictions apply:

Persons entering the Museum grounds and their luggage may be subjected to inspection, among others, with the use of electronic devices for detecting dangerous substances and

- materials, including X-ray scanners to inspect the luggage. The devices used are safe and have all the required certificates and tests confirming their safe use. Persons who refuse to undergo inspection, will not be permitted onto the premises of the Museum. The maximum size of bags and backpacks allowed onto the Museum grounds is 35x25x15 cm,
4. The Museum reserves the right to refuse to cooperate or its suspension for the period indicated with, among others, tourism organizations, tour operators, tour guides and interpreters who flagrantly violated or, particularly violate the good name and memory of the KL Auschwitz-Birkenau victims, the legal rights or reputation of the Museum, safety rules, as well as the proper functioning of the Museum, including the Regulations, and the Terms and Conditions for reservations and purchases of Entry Passes or the Price List. As a consequence of actions mentioned above, all the reservations for the period in which the cooperation is suspended or terminated may be cancelled with no right to claim in this respect against the Museum.
 5. Due to safety reasons, wheelchair access is only possible on the ground floor of buildings included in the tour.
 6. Guidons, flags and banners on flagpoles can be brought to the area of the Museum only during organised and reported ceremonies, commemorations and assemblies, in accordance with applicable regulations.
